

Lexington Health Foundation

Healthcare Scholarship Program Guidelines

You must review and acknowledge the information below regarding eligibility, the application procedures, the selection process, and other important information.

Lexington Health is committed to providing the best quality health care to its patients and community. To support this commitment, the Lexington Health Foundation provides annual healthcare scholarships to invest in maintaining the high-quality staff that has come to symbolize Lexington Health. Scholarships are available for current students pursuing a degree in nursing. Lexington Health employees pursuing a Certificate, Associate, or Bachelor degree in select Allied Health programs as described below are also eligible to apply for scholarship support.

Program	One-Time Amount Awarded
Associates Degree Program	$ 2,000
Bachelors Program*	$ 4,000
Graduate Program*	$ 4,000
Reduced scholarship awards are available to LH employees enrolled part-time.

Includes online programs

*Award amounts will be reduced by half for those who will graduate at the close of the Fall term (December or January graduates).

Anyone graduating prior to December 2026 will not be eligible to apply.

Part-time students as defined in the guidelines below will receive a one-half award.

Do I Qualify?

First, you must meet one of the following three categories:

1. LH Employee or Non-Employee: Full-Time Nursing Student

- Students enrolled FULL-TIME in a nursing program from an accredited college or university for the Fall 2026 Semester

- Defined as a minimum of 12 Hours for Associate or Bachelor degree programs
- Defined as a minimum of 6 Hours for RN-BSN or Graduate degree programs
- Must be enrolled in Upper Division Classes (junior/senior level classes) for the upcoming Fall semester for Bachelor degree programs; those entering a Lower Division upcoming fall semester in a Bachelor degree program do not yet qualify (freshman/sophomore level classes).

2. LH Employee: Part-Time Nursing Student

- Students enrolled *PART-TIME in a nursing program from an accredited college or university must be employed by Lexington Health to be eligible to apply
 - Defined as a minimum of 6 Hours for Associate or Bachelor degree programs or
 - Defined as a minimum of 3 Hours for RN-BSN or Graduate degree programs;

OR

3. LH Employee: Enrolled in a select Allied Health Certificate, Associate or Bachelor Degree Program

- Students taking a minimum of 12 hours for Allied Health Certificate, Associate or Bachelor degree programs; OR, part-time students taking a minimum of 6 hours for Allied Health Certificate, Associate or Bachelor degree programs must be employed by Lexington Health to be eligible to apply.
- Eligible Certificate and Associate Degree Programs include:
 - Imaging
 - CT Technician
 - MRI Technician
 - Radiation Technician

- Mammogram Technician
 - Nuclear Medicine Technician
 - Interventional Radiology Technician
 - Ultrasound Sonography
 - Cardiovascular
 - Echocardiographic
 - Respiratory Therapy
 - Polysomnography
 - Medical Laboratory Technician
 - Physical Therapy Assistant
 - Histology Technician
 - Surgery Technician
 - Sterile Technician
 - EEG Technician
 - Medical Assisting
- Eligible Bachelor Degree Programs include:
 - Physical Therapy
 - Occupational Therapy
 - Cardiovascular Technologist
 - Respiratory Therapy
 - Polysomnography
 - Exercise Science/Physiology with Emphasis on Healthcare Clinical Role

The scholarship program is focused on clinical roles. Other Masters degree programs such as public health, healthcare management, or MBA's not involving a continued career in hands-on clinical patient care are not eligible.

ALL APPLICANTS must meet all of the following qualifications to be eligible to apply:

- Maintain a minimum GPA of 2.8 on a 4.0 scale for the most recent academic year. Students with a GPA below 2.8 are not eligible to apply.
 - Be a US Citizen, permanent resident, or documented alien eligible to work in the United States
 - Applicant or parent or legal guardian of applicant must be legal resident of South Carolina
-

Application Process

- Complete the online scholarship application in its entirety. Please do not leave fields blank if they apply to you, because you will not receive credit for information that is left blank.
- Provide a complete copy of your most recent academic transcript (high school or college).
- Provide documentation from the college in which you are enrolled that indicates full admittance into the nursing or allied health program; if your application is pending, please attach confirmation of your application submission and anticipated notification date for acceptance.

Please review all uploaded documents to ensure they are legible before submitting your application. Contact the Foundation at (803)791-2540 if you have any issues.

All materials must be electronically submitted to the Lexington Health Foundation by 5:00 p.m. on Friday, April 17th, 2026.

All of the above must be included to be considered for a scholarship. Applicants that provide false information, fail to follow all procedures, fail to submit all requests by the required deadlines, and/or fail to meet all qualifications will be disqualified.

Selection Criteria

The Lexington Health Foundation awards a limited number of scholarships each year. The Lexington Health Foundation's Board of Directors Grants Committee will review all applications. Consideration of applications will be based on financial need, academic strength of the applicant, work experience, volunteer experience, and extra-curricular activities. Applicants that are currently employed at Lexington Health will receive additional consideration.

There is no discrimination as to race, gender, ethnicity, religion, national origin, disability, marital status, or military status.

Applicants selected to receive a scholarship will be notified BY EMAIL on or before Tuesday, June 30, 2026.

Additional Information/Requirements

Scholarship recipients should be prepared to provide a photo for submission to print and social media publications and understand that their biographical information may be submitted and published along with their photo in hospital publications and local media outlets. Submission of photo is granting Lexington Health / Lexington Health Foundation authorization to use picture and names for promotional use.

Photos are required only if you receive a scholarship award.

Application materials become the property of Lexington Health Foundation and will be treated as confidential documents to maintain the privacy of all applicants.